What do young people want from Winterton

As a first stage, looking at what the young people of Winterton want, the Council considered what the aims and objectives of the Youth Council could be.

Resolution: The Council agreed that its aims and objectives are:

- To be a voice for Young people in Winterton
- To champion young people
- Raise awareness of local campaigns
- Help to improve the community for all ages
- Make Winterton a better place to live

ACTION: Clerk

The Council also considered supporting a local charity or group and discussed how they would like to raise money throughout the year. A number of charities were highlighted. It was also discussed that any money raised could go back into the school to raise money for equipment and other resources.

Resolution: The Council agreed to seek the thoughts of the School on its fundraising and where any money raised should go.
